

Exploring the Majors

It's fine to explore your options during your first year, but remember to do so strategically: Many of the majors share basic requirements. Taking them will count towards whatever major you eventually choose:

Other ideas for first year courses:

- Enroll in a Freshman Seminar
 - CNR offers seminars ranging from topics such as “Discussions on Evolutionary Biology,” to “Insects, Ticks, and Human Diseases.” For a full list of Freshman Seminars consult: <http://fss.berkeley.edu/>
- Fulfill the American Cultures (AC) Requirement by taking a lower division AC course (ex: ESPM 50AC, Sociology 3AC, etc.). Visit <http://americancultures.berkeley.edu/> for links to complete AC course listings
