Don't miss this opportunity to obtain practical fumigation knowledge that can be put to use the next day in an actual fumigation demonstration.

Target Specialty Products, the University of California, Riverside & Berkeley and Drexel Chemical Company invite you to attend the Structural Fumigation School. The fumigation school is designed for licensed professionals treating commercial and residential structures. The two-day program features technical and regulatory updates, and a complete fumigation demonstration.

All proceeds benefit the University of California Riverside & Berkeley Urban Entomology Fund.
